TRUCK DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST ELIGIBILITY RULES

To be eligible to compete in any ATA-approved contest, a driver must certify the following:

- Her/his present employer has continuously employed her/him as a truck driver during the past 12 months. This requirement may be waived with respect to a driver who is otherwise eligible whose change of employment arises solely out of economic conditions, provided that: The aggregate time off from the duties of a professional truck driver does not exceed 30 calendar days in the 12 months prior to the contest.
- The entering employer shall verify with every other employer for the preceding 12 months, the dates worked by the driver, and the fact that the driver maintained an accident-free record.
- She/he has driven and performed the regular duties of a truck driver for at least 11 months of the year. Time off from the regular duties of a driver beyond and aggregate of 30 calendar days, regardless of the reason, shall render a driver ineligible to compete in the truck contest; provided, however, that normal days off, vacation time and holidays to which the driver is entitled by company policy shall not be counted in determining his/her eligibility.
- Her/his home terminal is located in Kentucky OR she/he lives in Kentucky.
- She/he meets the D.O.T. physical qualifications for driver.
- She/he has not been involved in a motor vehicle accident in the course of such employment. The only accidents, which need not be counted against the contestants' records are:
 - a) The contestant's vehicle was legally and properly parked.
 - b) The contestant's vehicle was stopped in traffic in compliance with a traffic sign or signal, or at the direction of a police officer.

Employees in the following job classifications are not eligible to enter contest competition:

1. Spotters, Hostlers, Switchers or Yardmen;
2. Employees used occasionally as drivers;
3. Employees who drive trucks incidental to their primary duties.

In 2017, ATA (American Trucking Association) changed their eligibility rules and it is no longer necessary to be an ATA member to compete in the National Truck Driving Championships. This rule change will allow the competition to be open to a more diversified group of motor carriers.
